

Beverly Hills Hotel

A mere step away from beach and offering breathtaking views, is the Beverly Hills Hotel, one of Umhlanga's most distinctive landmarks. The hotel exudes glamour and timeless elegance, and, as its name suggests, evokes the panache and impeccable taste of the celebrated Hollywood screen legends. Service is discreet, yet warm and personal.

The superb finishes hark back to an earlier, more gracious era, with sweeping banisters, luxurious "contemporary classic" cuisine has been created to satisfy the most fastidious international tastes.

The hotel's magnificent location affords the ultimate seaside getaway. A sun-drenched pool deck overlooks the ocean. Personal loungers are set up on the beach directly in front of the hotel, and poolside service is always discreetly on hand.

The beach itself is perfect for long, romantic strolls, while more energetic guests will find the fully equipped fitness centre ideal for a workout.

