

Lanzerac Manor and Winery

Seated on a 300 year old, 155 hectare country estate, prevails one of the region's most distinguished examples of Cape Dutch Architecture, maintaining the elegant atmosphere of a gracious age.

The Lanzerac Manor & Winery is located on a private working wine estate in the world-famous Jonkershoek Valley surrounded by the dramatic Helderberg mountains.

The hotel's rooms, restaurants, bar, lounge and facilities are all located in the estate's 300 year old Manor House and out-buildings, amidst 10 hectares of award-winning landscaped gardens featuring numerous ancient oaks, some over 160 years old.

The hotel is situated in the centre of the famous South African wine producing areas of Stellenbosch, Paarl, Franschhoek and Somerset West, and very close to numerous golf courses and the beaches of the Strand, Gordon's Bay and Cape Town. (From 20 to 70 minutes.)

