

The Marine

Just 110 kms from Cape Town International Airport and sited on the Hermanus cliff above the old harbour, The Marine Hotel is situated on the sea front at the end of the village main street. Due to its position The Marine has one of the southern hemisphere's most spectacular seascapes.

With its understated luxury and sophisticated décor, the hotel boasts 45 luxury rooms and suites. Spectacular views can be captured from your bedroom window, including the best land-based whale watching in the world.

Enjoy coastal walks with exquisite views across Walker Bay, where there is nothing between you and the Antarctic, other than a few thousand miles of ocean.

The 'Seafood at the Marine' Restaurant offers award winning cuisine or dine at 'The Pavilion' with its modern South African cuisine accompanied by the finest regional wines.

